The City of Dayton will soon start a new FREE bus service to take residents of five West Dayton neighborhoods to the Dayton Metro Library West Branch during peak library hours. The bus service is meant to reach residents who currently would have to cross U.S. 35 as pedestrians to reach the library. The service will begin July 1 and will continue through 2026. Read the full article HERE.

I have enjoyed hearing about and seeing pictures of the end-of-year celebrations, fatherhood events, and family engagement activities at various centers. There were so many creative ideas and fun activities! Here are a few pictures from some of those activities.
