DPS is hosting a family/caregiver workshop structured around reading literacy. This workshop will provide families with the skills and tools they need to assist their children to become better readers, and will also offer resources for families. They will be utilizing the documentary "The Right to Read" as the framework for conversations. The workshops are scheduled for the first Tuesday of each month. Click HERE for information about the October 3 workshop to be held at 5:30 pm at the NW Branch of the Dayton Metro Library, 2410 Philadelphia Drive, Dayton 45406.

Public Health Dayton and Montgomery County has a neighborhood navigator program available for any Montgomery County pregnant or newly postpartum person who may need help with resources. The resources include assisting with baby supplies, prenatal care, home visiting services, utilities, housing, and many more. Click HERE for more information about this great program.

Phillips Temple Church and The Community of Hope are hosting a Community Baby Shower on October 21 from 11 am to 1 pm, 3620 Shiloh Springs Road. The shower is free and open to the public. Click HERE for more information and to register.
